

Andrejchak feels there will be a lot of public scrutiny as to how they reached that decision. Mr. Burke added that they will want your votes so people should keep calling. Mr. Connelly mentioned that when they met with Mr. Pettit from Penn DOT which has been 5 years since that road has been paved, but Mr. Connelly explained that they argued for the rumble strips because they were not in originally and Mr. Pettit agreed to put them in but told Mr. Burke he remembered the conversation. Mr. Palanski asked for a time table for Penn DOT's decision and didn't feel that there should be a lot of restudying.

COMMENTS:

News Media- Mr. Wierinski asked what the reason for the 4 way stop sign was and Lt. Smith replied that there is a community center which also has a library and small children are in and out of the building all hours.

Citizens- Mr. Brian Kepple asked when the free and clear sale would be and how would the public be notified because Mr. Whalen said that January would be the final sales. Mr. Madden replied that all sales would be at the courthouse and it will be advertised for January or February 2014 and there should be a notice on the front door here at the City building when Council is notified.

Mr. Andrejchak-

Mr. Palanski-

Mr. Connelly- Wanted to thank the Police and Fire Departments for the response at the accident on Connelly Blvd. and thank everyone involved in Waterfire.
